TOUR OF THE ROYAL COMMISSION ON THE ANCIENT AND HISTORICAL MONUMENTS OF WALES (ARCHIVE) AND THE NATIONAL LIBRARY OF WALES

8.45am: Meet at the National Library entrance.

Come to the Royal Commission's Library and Search Room to view a fascinating selection of original archive material from the National Monuments Record of Wales. We hold records on all aspects of the Welsh built environment ranging from archaeology, ecclesiastical structures, architecture, industrial archaeology and the maritime history of Wales.

Staff will be on hand to talk you through the collections and give you insights into their origins and uses. The display will include aerial photographs, maps, notebooks, drawings, paintings and photographs for sites across Wales providing a snapshot of our collections. There will also be the opportunity to see behind the scenes on a tour of our stores.

Followed by: A guided tour and presentation to the National Library and its collections. Visitors will learn more about the history of the Library, the variety of collections held here and will be shown how we safeguard our collections for the future by visiting the storage and restricted areas.

It will be a 10-minute walk back to the conference venue, so please ensure that you wear appropriate footwear/clothing.
